

Ewalu Camp and Retreat Center

Strawberry Point, IA

Presents

Iowa Stories

Ewalu Spring Adult Enrichment Day

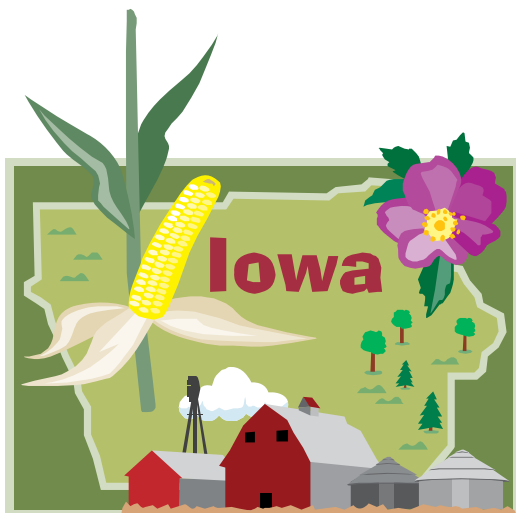

Tuesday, March 17, 2009

9:00 AM—3:00 PM

Ewalu Main Site: Cedar Lodge

Speakers:

- Larry Stone of Elkader, an author, photographer, historian, environmentalist. As lead writer for the DNR book, Iowa: Portrait of the Land, Larry looks at Iowa's natural resource history, the status and trends of those resources, and the challenge for all Iowans to pass on a healthy land ethic to those who follow.
- Merle Frommelt of Effigy Mounds National Monument near Harpers Ferry. Merle will share The Coming Of The White Man, a "hands-on" presentation featuring flintlocks, swords, furs, prehistoric tools, and stories of the Native Americans, as well as the early trapper and military involvement in the Iowa area.
- Paul Little of Strawberry Point, the story-teller, will be sharing stories of growing up in a small town and a middle-aged boy's journey through life.

Cost: $15.00 per person

Includes speakers, snacks, noon meal with live Irish music, and all the fun you want!

Bring your friends
and enjoy the day with us!

Please contact the camp at:
563-933-4700 or camp@ewalu.org
to reserve your spot today!